

International Workshop on Small Nations, States and Collectivities: Intellectual and Historical Possibilities

Institute of Taiwan History, Academia Sinica and the Global Studies Initiative, The University of Tokyo

Venue: Conference Room 802, ITH

Time: 22nd March 2024, 13:20-17:50

Time	Agenda
12:50-13:20	Registration
13:20-13:30 Opening	WU Rwei-Ren (Associate Research Fellow, ITH)
Panels	Chairperson	Presenter	Title	Discussant
13:30-15:10 第一場	UMEMORI, Naoyuki (Waseda University Professor)	DATE, Kiyonobu (The University of Tokyo, Professor)	Japan, a Small Nation Feigning to be Something Greater in East Asian Context	WU, Rwei-Ren (Associate Research Fellow, ITH)
		Dr. TANAKA, Hiroki (The University of Tokyo)	Imagining a Small Nation in an Empire: Kōtoku Shūsui and his ‘small-nationalism	UMEMORI, Naoyuki (Waseda University Professor)
		CHEUNG, Ching-yuen (The University of Tokyo, Associate Professor)	Philosophy in Hong Kong after 1949	CHAN, Joseph Cho Wai (Academia Sinica Distinguished Research Fellow)
15:10-15:30	Tea Time
Panels	Chairperson	Presenter	Title	Discussant
15:30-17:10 第二場	Dr. TAKAYAMA Hanako The University of Tokyo	WU, Rwei-Ren (Associate Research Fellow, ITH)	A Tale of Three Islands— Recent developments of nationalism in Okinawa, Taiwan and Hong Kong	DATE, Kiyonobu (The University of Tokyo, Professor)
		CHEN, Wei-Chi (Assistant Research Fellow, ITH)	Gandhi in Taiwan: A moment for Colonial Internationalism in the Interwar Taiwan	HSU, Shi-Cha (Yamagata University, Associate Professor)
		KU, Heng-Chan (Assistant Research Fellow, ITH)	Subjectivity Unachieved : The Frustrated Quest of Taiwan’s Aboriginal Political Elites in Early Post-WWII Era	Chan, Su Chuan (Associate Research Fellow, ITH)

17:10-17:50 Round Table Discussion and Closing Remarks	All participants
---	------------------

- ※ Languages of workshop: Mandarin, English and Japanese.
- ※ Interpreting services provided